Squishy Squashy Squid lives in the ocean. He likes to go for a walk past the rocks, coral and starfish.

One day, Squishy Squashy Squid was swimming in the ocean. He turned around and saw a boy swimming with him. The boy's name was Squinn. Squishy Squashy Squid met a new friend.

The next day, Squinn brought his friend to meet Squid. "Squishy, Squashy, meet my friend, Squideen," he said.

The three friends played and played all day in the ocean. It was great fun! Squinn and Squideen gave Squishy Squashy a thumbs up! “See you tomorrow,” they said.
